Existence and regularity results for variable exponent systems

Maria Magdalena Boureanu 1

¹ University of Craiova

mmboureanu@yahoo.com

Abstract: We are concerned with the study of variable exponent systems involving generalized operators of Leray-Lions type. More precisely, we provide existence and regularity results. At the same time, we aim to motivate our preference for this kind of operators by presenting various examples of systems that represent particular cases of the general class of systems treated by us.